This is Great Falls High School

The entrance in the new east wing has become the most frequently used door to our school. It is one of the two front doors of Great Falls High School.

This year the first classes were taught in the new classrooms created in the newly completed additions to the east wing. Four classrooms were added, and the size of the library was nearly doubled. A reading lab and a glassed-in reading room were also added to the library. Another chemistry lab was also installed. The additional stairways helped to relieve a portion of the hall congestion caused by the terrific number of students passing between classes.

The stadium, empty and quiet, awaits another football game. The field is truly "The Home of the Bison."

This year the wrought iron gate served as a door to victory for the Bison on the football field.

---The Home of the Bison

Great Falls High School is beautifully landscaped. Here, a part of the campus stretches before us.

The inscription on the scoreboard expresses not only the team's feelings about the stadium, but also everyone's feelings about Great Falls High School.

Great Falls High School was the scholastic home for 2,500 sophomores, juniors, and seniors for the 1962-63 school year. This "home" has been remodeled and changed since its dedication in 1930. The most recent changes were the additions to the old east wing.

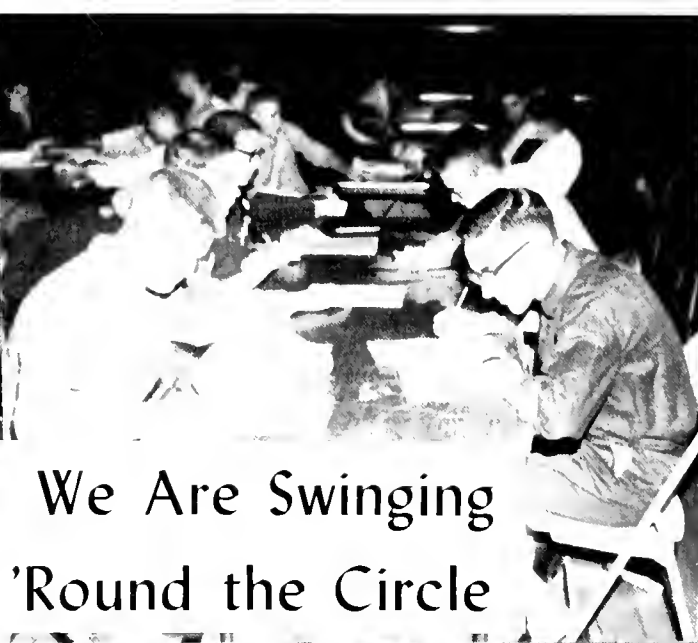

The new additions helped somewhat to alleviate the over-crowding of hallways and classrooms. However, since Great Falls High School was originally designed to accommodate only 1,700 students, more drastic measures had to be taken.

A three-shift system was established. The first shift, beginning at 6:55 a. m., consisted mainly of seniors. Many sophomores, juniors, and seniors began at 7:50. However, the majority of juniors had the dreaded 12:30 p. m. shift. After many weeks of discontent, the schedules finally ran smoothly.

This year the students of Great Falls High School excelled in all fields of endeavor: athletics, forensics, music, drama. All these things make our school the great educational institution that it is.

Also a front door to our school, the senior entrance remains the most beloved spot around Great Falls High School to both seniors and underclassmen.

ADMINISTRATIVE FACULTY

Who gives and hides the giving hand,
Nor counts on favor, fame, or praise,
Shall find his smallest gift outweighs
The burden of the sea and land.

Who gives to whom hath naught been given,
His gift in need, though small indeed
As is the grass-blade's wind-blown seed,
Is large as earth and rich as heaven.

Superintendent and School Board

Robert Farnsworth, Superintendent of Schools

Lloyd Croxford

Stephen Birch

Mr. Robert B. Farnsworth, superintendent of schools, and his capable Board of Trustees have served our community faithfully during the past year. Under Mr. Farnsworth's direction many new grade schools, two junior high schools, and a new high school have been added to the district. This year two new members were elected to the Board of Trustees. They were: Mr. C. P. Moore, a banker at Great Falls National Bank, and Mr. Dan Snyder, owner of KRTV.

Robert Noble

Oversee Large School System

Sam Chapman

Major decisions affecting the high school for the 1962-63 school year and approved by the trustees were: the hiring of one hundred and four teachers; a triple shift beginning at 6:55 a. m. and ending at 6:00 p. m; putting into operation the new wing of the building which houses the commercial and home economics departments; the opening of the new library and the hiring of two librarians, one for the morning shift and one for the afternoon shift.

C. P. Moore

Dan Snyder

The largest single item of business carried on by the superintendent and his board of trustees was the final approval by the voters to build a new high school on the west side of town. The high school bond issue was authorized by school electors last May. The new school has been named the Charles M. Russell High School after the great western painter, Charles M. Russell, who spent most of his life in Great Falls, Montana. The board is trying to complete the new school for a fall opening in 1965.

Principal and Vice-Principal Handle Major Decisions

Heading the key position on the campus at Great Falls High School is Mr. R. W. Swarthout, who has been the principal of our school for the past six years. He exemplifies to the students and teachers of our school the highest qualities that we can achieve in life . . . living life to the fullest with a sharp wit and a warm smile, striving for the best that is within us, regardless of the hardships involved, and being tops academically and athletically.

The problems that have confronted our school this year have been gigantic. A split shift, running from 6:55 a. m. until 6:00 p. m., the scheduling of over 2,400 pupils, an enlarged faculty of one hundred and four teachers, and fulfilling a schedule of social obligation to the city's clubs and organizations are some of the numerous duties performed by our principal. In addition, he serves as the president of the Montana High School Association.

Mr. Norbert Johnson, our vice-principal, has held this position for the past two years. During the absence of the principal, he is in complete charge of the school. It is his primary duty to see that everything is functioning properly. While not acting as the principal, he is busy supervising the registration and the scheduling of students. All schedule change applications are processed through his office, and he offers valuable assistance to the counselors and teachers concerning any students that they may have in their care.

In a school the size of ours, scheduling of students is a huge and extremely complex task. Many hours of hard work are required before a schedule that fits the need of all students can be drawn up. This responsibility is shared by the principal and the assistant principal. The work on the fall semester is begun early in February.

These Administrators Keep the School Functioning

Mr. Lowell Hults, Director of Educational Guidance, provides an invaluable service to GFHS students. He is especially well qualified, by his many years of counseling experience, to help our juniors and seniors make decisions that so profoundly affect their future.

Career counseling, reviewing college courses of study and entrance requirements, administering aptitude and achievement tests, computing class rank, evaluating financial aids for college applicants, conferring with parents, and handling applications to colleges and schools are some of the guidance functions for which Mr. Hults is responsible. He spends many after-school hours processing scholarship applications for worthy students. Over the years, his faith in the intellectual promise of these students has been richly rewarded. Through their achievements, our school has received nation-wide acclaim for its high academic standards.

One of the most beloved and respected faculty members in our school is Miss Catherine Rathman, Dean of Girls. Many girls have found her to be a person who understands their problems and who gives them invaluable advice and help.

As dean she is responsible for all girls activities. A part of this is the organization of the Senior Teas and the planning of an orientation party given by sophomores for the ninth grade girls.

She helps the many girls who have personal and emotional problems as well as those who come to her for advice on school matters and future jobs. Parent conferences help girls adjust to life at GFHS and are also part of Miss Rathman's busy schedule.

Lowell Hults, MA
Director of Educational Guidance
Supervisor of Testing

Mr. H. F. (Dutch) Dahmer is the Dean of Boys and Director of Athletics and Co-ordinator of boys' activities at our school. Much of his work involves counseling boys who have emotional and personal problems rather than academic problems. His winning smile and true sense of right and wrong have set many of these boys on the right path, and have made them necessary and worthwhile citizens of our school.

Parent conferences, finding the causes of boys' problems, and helping new boys adjust to life at Great Falls High School are the other functions he performs.

As the Director of Athletics, he is in charge of all sports events held at the school. His duties include scheduling games, arranging transportation and lodging, purchasing equipment, and hiring officials.

Counselors Are Always Busy

Miss Kay Ormiston, senior counselor, A-K

Mr. Roger Aspevig, senior counselor, L-Z

Mr. Floyd Schlameus, junior counselor, A-G

Counseling Center Meets the Individual Needs of Pupils

Mr. John Stefanoff, sophomore counselor, H-P

Mr. James Engle, sophomore counselor, A-G

The counseling center at Great Falls High School is structured to meet needs, stimulate and channel interest, and define aptitude in terms of each student. The department personnel is composed of the Dean of Girls, Dean of Boys, the Co-ordinator of Educational Guidance and Testing, and eight teacher-counselors.

The counseling program exists to aid the individual student plan his general course of study to meet graduation requirements; make responsible choices of electives; recognize his academic strengths and weaknesses through test interpretation; and surmount routine difficulties.

During his high school career, the student remains in contact with the same counselor. This continuous relationship allows the greatest degree of mutual understanding and respect.

Mrs. Natalie Lewis, sophomore counselor, P-Z

Mrs. Betty Pichette, receptionist and counseling clerk.

Hub of Activity Is Main Office

Mrs. Maxine Martin, secretary to the principal, handles all administrative correspondence and acts as liaison between the administration and staff.

Mrs. Christine Lyon prepares materials for teachers.

Mrs. Paul Walker, records clerk, assists in checking student records.

One of the major departments found in any school is the main office, and ours is one of the finest in the Northwest. It operates from 6:00 a. m. until 6:00 p. m. Its duties are varied and at any given time during the morning or afternoon, students, teachers, and other personnel are given assistance.

The main office is in the capable hands of Mrs. Maxine Martin, who as office manager and secretary to the principal handles all administrative correspondence and acts as liaison between the administration and the office staff. With Mrs. Martin are Mrs. Paul Walker, records clerk, who helps counselors and teachers check student records, Mrs. Ruth Traber, schedule clerk, who assists administrators and teachers in leveling class loads, and Mrs. Christine Lyon, who as typist prepares material for the office and for the teachers.

The finance office, under the capable direction of Mr. Robert Leifer, who also carries a teaching load of distributive education, is found in the foyer of the auditorium. All financial matters are handled by Mr. Leifer and his student staff composed of Betty Kercher, Judy Black, and Laverne Schmidt.

The library is an integral part of a school's academic life. Ours, with approximately eleven thousand volumes, is a fine one and practically indispensable to student and teachers alike. Because of an expanding enrollment and the resulting increase in demand for library facilities, the library was enlarged and a new librarian, Mrs. Frances Dufraine.

If you've ever been on first floor in the early morning hours and have seen the line extending into the hall, you realize what a tremendous job the attendance office has. Handling the attendance and tardy records of over 2,400 students is a mammoth task and certainly an important one.

Mrs. Ruth Traber, schedule clerk, assists administrators and teachers in checking transfers.

Variety of Duties Carried on by Office Forces

Mrs. Anglum and Kathy Ratledge have many duties as the heads of the Attendance Office.

Working in the Finance Office is the job of these two girls, Betty Kercher and LaVerne Schmidt.

The district dietician plans a complete lunch, which includes a basic meat, at least one or two vegetables in addition to potatoes, fresh baked rolls, butter, fruit or juice, and milk. Cost of the basic lunch is thirty cents, and the students may pay a slight charge for ice cream. The low cost of meals is made possible by a government subsidy.

The five lunch periods begin at 11:00 and end at 1:30, covering a span of two and a half hours. For those students who start school at 12:30, a snack period is given later on in the day.

Art Helps the Student Develop Imagination and a Sense of Beauty

Robert E. Dillabough
Applied Design-Art Appreciation-Stage Crafts,
B.S.-University of North Dakota, Stage Events.

When a student takes art, no previous art experience is necessary. However, an interest in art is very helpful.

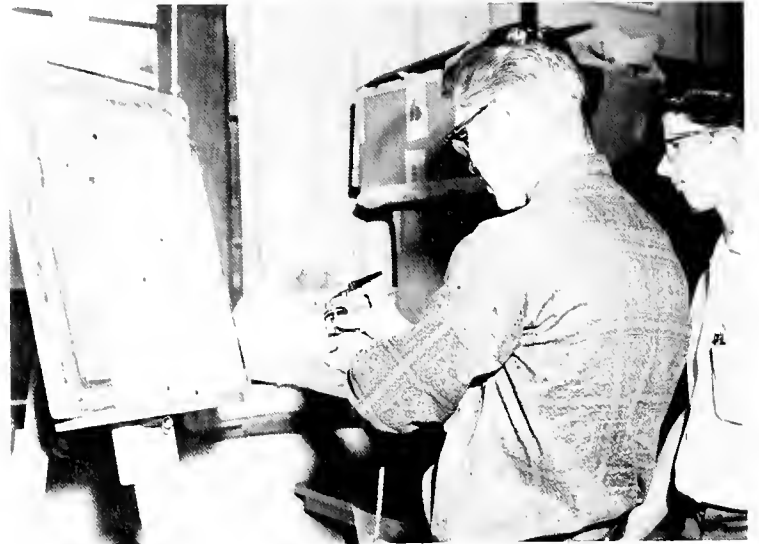

Besides learning the techniques, the course gives the student a better understanding of art and an awareness of it in his everyday life. The student has a chance to create and express himself in various art media.

Donald Walters
Art, B.S.-Layton School of Art-University of Hawaii-University of Minnesota-Montana State College, Graduate work-Montana State College, Ski Club Sponsor-Ski Team Coach.

What is art? The best definition is that art is a form given by man's imagination to his sensory experience and his life of feeling. When a painting is finished, the artist has expressed feeling, imagination, and his own sense of beauty.

The theme of the work of art is nature, geometric forms and lettering. Line, form, tone, color, and texture go into the art elements. The principles of arrangement are repetition, rhythm, balance, proportion, and emphasis.

Bookkeeping and Typing Emphasize Neatness and Accuracy

Eunice Anderson
Typing-Bookkeeping, B.S.-Minot State Teachers College.

Our high school uses the "touch system" of typing. This means that the typist memorizes the keyboard so that he can type without looking at the keys. During the first year, emphasis is placed on accuracy and learning the different forms of business letters. Speed is also important and will increase as one practices on the typewriter.

Maxine Huber
Shorthand-Typing-Record Keeping, B.S.-Jamestown College, Junior Class Sponsor.

Bookkeeping is the writing down of records that have to do with money. The first and greatest importance of bookkeeping is to put things down so they will not be forgotten.

Single-entry and double-entry bookkeeping are used in the blank books to represent accounts. The two main types of books used are the journal and the ledger.

Homemaking is an important activity of all peoples of all lands. The home is the backbone of every nation. The home-economics program in our school includes the study of personality growth, family relationships, child growth and development, money management, home management, home hygiene, clothing, housing, and the care of the sick.

Kay Dell Nelson
Home Economics, B.S.-Montana State College.

Homemaking students prepare a complete dinner for their invited guests.

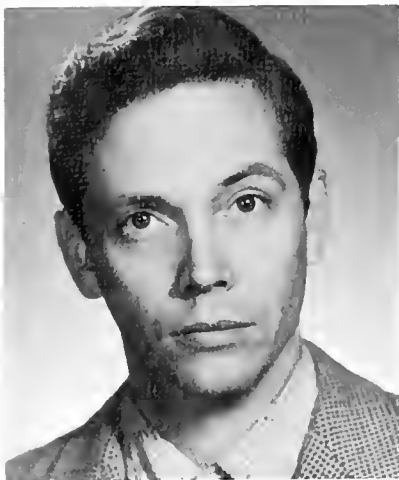

Kay Ormiston
Home Economics, B.S.-North Dakota State University, Counselor.

This course has many valuable qualities. It emphasizes such skills as cooking, sewing, wise purchasing habits, caring for children, getting along with people, and the budgeting of time, money and energy. It also teaches the importance of good citizenship and of taking an active part in social and civic affairs.

Drama Stresses Play Techniques, Features Shakespearian Unit

Maxine Hexum
English. B.S.-Wisconsin State College.

First year drama class is designed to give students a working knowledge of the theater and to teach a composite history of drama from its beginnings in ancient Greece to contemporary play productions. Students learn how directors cast a play, how to apply stage make-up, and what the duties of the stage crews are. To select a play scene and produce it for the class is one of the regular assignments.

An added feature for the second semester class is an intensive study of Shakespeare and his plays. This course helps a student intelligently select movies, plays, and books that will help supplement his liberal arts and humanities background.

English is one of the most important courses in school. The ability to communicate both orally and by the written word, is an invaluable asset in every walk of life. Through the study of literature we enter into another world and form reading habits that will be continuous sources of enrichment throughout our lives.

In the sophomore year a unit entitled "Meet the World" is emphasized, which acquaints the students with the cultures of other nations. An intensive study by each student of one particular nation is the major requirement of this unit. It is the student's first experience with the proper organization and construction of the term paper. In the literature unit A Tale of Two Cities is read, and also the student is introduced to Shakespeare through the study of "Julius Caesar."

English Courses Are Varied; Many Levels Are Taught

English students prepare report on the climbing of Mt. Everest, the highest mountain in the Himalayas.

Work in the junior year is divided over two semesters to provide a proper balance of literature, grammar, composition, vocabulary, and allied studies. The literature, which places special emphasis on American culture, heritage, and ideals, traces the development of American writing with our country's historical development. Also emphasized are the communication arts, which include composition, independent reading and reporting, the library, and listening and speaking.

There are two divisions of senior English. College preparatory English is comprised of the largest number of seniors. The students are introduced to English literature and authors and read, among other things, a play by Shakespeare and a novel by Hardy. The skills of mechanics of expression, using written and oral English effectively, and acquiring a wide and usable vocabulary are stressed. A good deal of composition is done to facilitate the mastery of these skills.

There are also two senior honors English classes, taught by Miss Myrtle Nelson. These classes concentrate on clearness and precision in composition and depth of understanding in literature. "Hamlet" "Macbeth," "Cyrano de Bergerac," and The Return of the Native are examples of the type of reading honors English students do. They also had an interesting and informative unit on Books That Changed the World. The intensive study done in these classes and the fine work habits acquired are excellent preparation for future college work.

The second division of senior English is designed for students who are not going on to college. The program includes correct grammar usage, a unit on magazine and newspaper reading, letterwriting, oral expression, vocations, and the composition of paragraphs and themes. Students are helped to overcome reading handicaps and to develop an appreciation of good reading. Modern literature forms the basis of the literature for the course.

Remedial English is offered to the students who are weak in the fundamentals of grammar or need extra help with their reading. Basic rules of grammar, spelling, and writing are stressed.

In the reading program, students work with the S.R.A. Reading Lab which points out their weaknesses, and then they move into an advanced reading workbook. Simplified versions of novels are required reading, and a student must read one per week.

Music is the language of sound. The language of words expresses ideas; the language of sound expresses feelings. Its "words" are tones and chords; its "sentences" are melodies and harmonic sequences; its "stories" and "essays" are songs, dances, fugues; its "books" are suites, sonatas, and symphonies.

In listening to music we recognize certain elements. They are melody, harmony, rhythm, dynamics, and tone color.

Physical education has the primary function of developing the body by means of exercise. The gymnasium is used for such sports as basketball, volleyball, wrestling and badminton.

As a whole, physical education is used for the improvement of muscles, for physical coordination, and to keep the body fit.

Health includes a study of the structure and functions of the human body. Personality development and mental health problems are discussed also.

Far East history is a new course set up the last semester of this year. It traces the history and cultural development, primarily of China and Japan, from prehistoric to present times. India, Southeast Asia, Tibet, and other Far Eastern countries are touched upon as they relate to the whole of Far East history. Special emphasis is placed on the rise and development of communism in China. The students use four paperback textbooks, are required to follow a specified program of library reading, and must do several book reviews. The requirements of this course are comparable to a freshman college course and prepare the interested student for more advanced college work in Far Eastern history.

The purpose of Russian history is to familiarize the student with the Soviet Union; its historical development, the emergence of the Soviet State and political philosophy, and the geography of the Soviet Union. The course covers the history of Russia from its early beginnings through the Bolshevik Revolution. A brief study of Marxism is also undertaken. The preparation and eating of a Russian meal, accompanied by some typical Russian music, is one of the highlights of the semester. To broaden the students knowledge, a term paper is required each quarter along with two magazine reports per week.

Some of the objectives of world history, a course requirement of all GFHS students, are to provide an intelligible explanation of world events and trends, to recognize that culture is international and to cultivate an appreciation of diverse cultures, to derive and apply generalizations which explain what would otherwise appear to have happened by chance, and to gain some glimpses into the future.

In the first semester of United States' history, our history from the European background of colonization through the Civil War and Reconstruction is covered. Our history up to the near present is taught in the second semester. Also stressed is current events to give the students an understanding of the history making events happening every day. The study of our nation's history is invaluable if we are to gain insight into the events that have made our country what it is today.

The course on Latin American history begins with a brief study of the geography of Latin America, followed by a unit on the civilizations of the Incas, Aztecs and Mayans. Then the period of Spanish conquest and colonization and its effect on the history of Latin America is covered. Also included is the fight for South American independence, and a present day study of Latin American countries, their governments and problems. Some consideration is given to the future of these countries and how the United States and Latin America can work toward a permanent peace. A major requirement of this course is an intensive study of one country of Latin America.

HONOR

The easy roads are crowded
And the level roads are jammed;
The pleasant little rivers
With the drifting folks are crammed.
But off yonder where it's rocky,
Where you get a better view,
You will find the ranks are thinning
And the travelers are few.

Where the going's smooth and pleasant
You will always find the throng,
For the many, more's the pity,
Seem to like to drift along.
But the steeps that call for courage,
And the task that's hard to do
In the end result in glory
For the never-wavering few.

Japanese and British Exchange Programs Widen Our Contacts with Foreign Lands

KoKo

Hiroko Horikoshi, better known as "Koko," was brought to the United States from Yokohama, Japan by the American Field Service. She arrived August 20, 1962, and stayed until the latter part of June.

Koko did not receive credit in Japan for the courses she took at GFHS. At home she must continue school from August until she graduates in April.

This year's AFS candidates are pictured at right. They are Gary Hager, Claudia Johnson, Mickey Cummings, and Sharon Browning.

This year GFHS received an exchange student from England and in return, sent a student to England.

Justin Woods came from London, England. She stayed with Robin Guern during the first semester. She was kept very busy with American activities. After returning to London, she started her career in Chartered Accountancy for which she is articled for five years.

Robin Guern returned to England with Justin on January 11. Robin lived with the Turner family in London. She attended school with her foster sister at Streatham Hill and Clapham High School.

Janet Atkinson

This year GFHS participated in an exchange program with Sandefjord, Norway. Three Great Falls students went to Norway last summer and will return this coming summer. The students were Mary Olson, a 1962 graduate. Janet Atkinson, a senior this year, and Gary Teigen, also a senior. They attended high school in Norway and participated in the activities of Norwegian students. While in Norway, these three students excelled in all their studies and activities.

Four Norweigan Students Join the GFHS

Tor Bjorness

Because of our exchange program with Sandefjord, Norway, four seniors, Lil Holmgren, Guri-Mette Farnen, Tor Bjorness, and Roar Loken came to Great Falls.

Tor Bjorness, who had a charming personality, lived with the Long family and the Johnson family.

Guri-Mette Farnen, lived with the Atkinson family while their daughter was in Norway.

CLASSES

This Is Senior Year -- An End and a Beginning

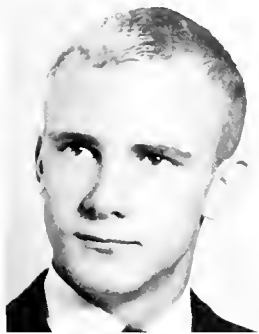

Five hundred ninety-eight seniors comprise the largest graduating class in the history of GFHS, the Class of 1963. Ours was not only a class of outstanding size, but one of outstanding leadership. Sharing the honors as class officers this year were Mike Pichette, president, Darrel Furan, vice-president, and Penny Bowlin, secretary.

We presented "Disneyland" as our Senior Assembly and followed up our Junior Prom with a memorable Senior Ball. We sponsored the first Bison Rally Day, which will become a traditional Senior Class project.

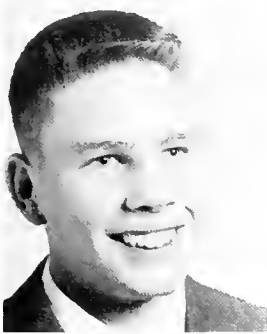

As members of the Class of '63 we have witnessed many unforgettable events. The winning of the 1961-62 basketball championship, the capturing of first-place honors at the 1962 Interscholastics, and the sweeping of the 1962 football championship are thrills that will never die.

Class assemblies, formal dances, Roundup Days, tournaments—these are the wonderful times that we will never forget. Because the future offers numerous opportunities, here's wishing prosperous years ahead for the "mighty seniors."

Sandy Zipperian

Moving ahead toward their future position of school leadership next year is the Class of '64.

The Juniors have demonstrated their capacity to offer fine leadership through their many accomplishments. Hours of hard work and group fun produced a fine Junior Assembly, "Surfin' Safari," and a lovely Junior Prom. The juniors have participated whole-heartedly in all activities, excelling in sports, music, and speech.

This year the Junior Class elected Dave Lafferty, president, Jerry Coons, vice-president, and Elizabeth Nelson, secretary. Their expert leadership brought many rewarding experiences to the students.

This year everyone was confronted with some changes at GFHS. The most noticeable change was in scheduling, with the majority of juniors finding themselves in the 12:30 shift. At first, this was a shock, but with their usual adaptability and good spirits, the juniors adjusted well to the new time schedule.

The Junior Class will continue to add a definite part to the active spirit of GFHS, while completing the rest of their wonderful school days.

Sophomore Class Has Size, Potential, and Future

On the opening day of school this year, 1,116 bewildered sophomores graced the halls of GFHS. Hailing from three different junior high schools, they united for the first time to form the largest class in the history of the school.

Elected to lead the Sophomore Class through their first year at GFHS were Mike McPherson, president, Joe Crocifisso, vice-president, and Sue Borgeson, secretary.

The sophomores found high school life very different from that in junior high. However, they eagerly adapted to the tremendous increase in the amount of school work, school activities, and social activities, anxious to successfully begin their three years in this bigger and busier school.

The Class of '65 is proud to be a part of this outstanding school and will uphold its fine reputation and will carry on its great tradition.

Juniors Honor Graduating Seniors

Junior Miss Gerri Ogle

With Annual Prom

The Class of 1963, under the sponsorship of Miss Kathleen Cosgriff and Mr. Ivan Hunt, presented "Dante's Inferno" as their Junior Prom. In accordance with the theme, the gym was decorated in orange, red, and maroon.

While others danced, some couples visited with friends or just relaxed.

Gerri Ogle was elected Junior Miss. She was crowned by the Junior Class President Dick Shockley upon a throne of flames and glowing coals.

Couples danced to the music of Emmet Wilson's Band.

Booster Ball

The 1962 Booster Ball was presented in an elegant winter setting to the theme of "Winterland By Night."

The Booster Club annually sponsors the Booster Ball, which is the first formal dance of the school year. It is the only formal dance to which the alumni are invited.

The crowd anxiously awaits the newly chosen queen of the 1962 Booster Ball as the procession moves toward the throne.

Dark blues predominated the decorations. Murals of mountains adorned the walls, giving a wintry effect.

The theme song for the dance was "Wonderland By Night." Couples also danced to "Moon River," "Misty," "Tenderly," and "Twilight Time."

Julie Rogers was elected Booster Ball Queen by the couples attending the dance. Booster Club President Jim Stubbs crowned her and presented her with the robe of royalty and one dozen red roses.

Each year the classes nominate candidates for the honor of Roundup Day King and Queen. The three couples are feted during the festivities, and during the parade are driven through the downtown streets in convertibles.

Final selection of the King and Queen is made at the dance following the barbecue dinner in the gymnasium.

Gerri Ogle and Dick Shockley were elected Roundup Day royalty for 1962.

Bison Rally Day Highlights Fall Sports Season

The first Bison Rally Day was sponsored this year by the Senior Class. The purpose of the day was to honor the varsity football team before the vital game with Missoula.

A parade of decorated cars highlighted the afternoon. A prize was awarded for the most original decorations.

The game was preceeded by a snake dance up Central Avenue. A pep rally was staged in the stadium before a roaring bonfire.

SENIOR — Gerri Ogle

The candidates for Rally Day Queen were nominated by the football team. Preliminary and finalist elections were held among the entire male student body.

The Rally Day dance was held in the gym, which was decorated to represent a football field. Yard lines were marked out on the floor, which had goal posts on each end.

The queen candidates were escorted to the throne by senior football lettermen. The Queen, Kris Harrington, was presented a corsage and a gold football upon a throne with a goal post background.

Controversial Novels Are Subjects for Discussion in Literature Club

A GFHS student gives a summary of a literary classic. These discussions give students an opportunity to evaluate a book critically.

The Literature Club stimulates interest in literature by the means of reading and discussing literature. It also promotes better understanding of literature. The members meet with people of similar interests and become better acquainted with the writings of great authors.

During the year guest speakers spoke to the club. In addition, the members enjoyed a picnic, a pizza party, and several contests.

School Activities Include Such Diversions as Play and Musical Comedy Productions

Students admire the new school rings which were introduced this year.

GFHS students pay for their high school pictures when the pictures are taken.

GFHS juniors take National Merit Examination. This test qualifies students for scholarships.

Activities are the continuing program of fun and education from the beginning of school to the end. They provide a release from the tension of studies. Everywhere a student looks, something is always happening. Classes raise money through candy sales and after-game dances to help finance special events given during the year. Pep assemblies are held to acquaint GFHS students with new cheers and to increase school spirit.

Club Initiations Entertain Old Members, Torture New Initiates

Almost every club in Great Falls High School holds initiations to welcome in new members. Club initiations give the old timers an opportunity to devise new tricks to confuse the initiates.

Playful Hijinks Welcome New GAA and Lettermen's Club Members

Initiations are usually informal. Those given in GAA and in Lettermen's clubs are no exceptions. The new members must give skits in order to join the clubs. However, before the entertainment, the initiates give the oath of the club.

"The Siamese Twins" must sing their theme song and recite the Lettermen's Creed.

All-School Play 'Ramshackle Inn' Is Fall Stage Production

"Ramshackle Inn," a three-act mystery farce written by George Batson, was this year's all-school fall play, which was presented November 29, 30, and December 1. The cast which included 15 students, was comprised of sophomores, juniors, and seniors. All together over 100 people were involved on the production staff. Under the direction of our dramatics coach, C. W. Lund, "Ramshackle" was one of the most successful comedies produced here in recent years.

During dress rehearsal, things tend to get rough, but all is in fun.

Three One Act Plays Challenge Student Directors and Casts

In this scene from "Infanta" Sharon Browning, as the Infanta, grieves over the body of the dwarf, played by Rick Stokes. In the background, the nurse, Judy Birchum, and the Infanta's aunt, Lauren Weissman, look on.

Here Candy Sidener, as the wealthy widow, and Jeff Dehne as her nephew enact a scene from "High Window." In this play an old widow accuses her nephew of killing her husband by pushing him off a high tower. The climax comes when it is revealed that the widow herself killed her husband.

'High Window,' 'Infanta' and 'Pierre Patelin' Provide Variety of Entertainment

Rick Stokes, Lauren Weissman, and Sharon Browning enact a tragic scene from "Infanta."

Glen Gauer plays the part of a villain.

The annual presentation of three one-act plays is one of the major projects of the National Thespian Society. This year the plays chosen were "High Window," a suspense mystery directed by Jean McDonald, "Infanta," a light fantasy directed by Kathy Davies, and "The Worthy Master Pierre Patelin," a medieval farce directed by Dave Traher. At the cast party following the presentation of the plays, Rob Van Sickle and Sharon Browning were named Best Actor and Actress, and Glenn Gauer and Lauren Weissman won the Best Supporting Actor and Actress awards. "Pierre Patelin" was named Best Play and Kathy Davies was honored as Best Director.

This scene from "Pierre Patelin" shows Joh Nichols at Patelin's wife, Bob Cushman as the draper, and Rob Van Sickle in the lead role of Pierre Patelin.

Faculty-Senior Basketball Game Pits Age and Languor Against Youth and Agility

Before 1500 screaming, noisy, and partisan fans, the "Mighty Bison" stomped the "Bison Faculty" at the annual faculty-senior basketball game. The final tally when the buzzer sounded was a significant 57-40. The game was close until Don Knutson broke loose in the fourth quarter to give the seniors a 45-39 point lead. From there on the score became more lopsided as the faculty found the pace a bit tiring against the youthful varsity. High point men for the faculty were Eddie Anderson 18, and Larry Schulz 9. Senior high point men were Don Knutson 15, Darrell Furan and Tom Storm 12 each. Proceeds from the game went to the Bison golf and tennis teams.

Grim determination to outdo the faculty members stimulates the seniors to jump higher and play better than their former coaches.

Above: Exhausted coaches relax between quarters, dreading the beginning of the fourth time period.

Heavy guarding is responsible for many pile-ups under the basket.

This year the tradition of the faculty basketball game was changed. Instead of pitting faculty members against each other, senior boys played the coaches. The seniors also challenged the juniors and sophomores, who promoted the cause of the faculty team, to a yell contest. Two teachers, Mr. Jerry Foote and Mr. Duane Lawrence, assisted the junior members of the varsity cheer squad in leading the cheers of the underclassmen. However, the seniors, led by the senior cheerleaders, far outclassed them in originality and volume.

Special Fund Raising Drive Pledges Over $500 to Aid Injured Billings Senior Athlete

Through donations from various clubs and individuals, The Great Falls High School student body and faculty participated in the statewide Rick Hutton Fund Drive. The fund was established to assist in the payment for medical care for Rick Hutton, a Billings Senior High School athlete who was seriously injured during a conference football game between Billings Senior and Billings West.

Schools all over Montana participated in this drive to assist another high school student. The $500 goal set by GFHS was reached in less than a week.

Bison Mascot on Gym Floor Exemplifies School Spirit and Tradition

Molly McCollum adds the final touches to the blue Bison mascot on the floor of the gym.

Molly poses proudly with the finished product of her artistic talents.

For part of its annual project for the school, the Booster Club sponsored the painting of a blue Bison mascot in the center jump circle of our gymnasium.

All art work was done by Molly McCollum, who has channeled a majority of her energies to high school art work. The painting of the Bison took her ten hours.

The first class assembly of the year is the Senior Assembly. It is a class tradition and usually sets the stage for the other class assemblies given during the school year. "Disneyland" was the title of the Senior Assembly. After several weeks of intensive rehearsals, the students performed before the student body and faculty. Because of the large enrollment at GFHS, the class assemblies are presented twice.

Mimicry, Dancing, Popular Songs and Satire

"Rudy" and "Rudy" enjoy a day at the beach, hopefully without interruption from students.

The class of '64, like the Junior Class before it, bounced back to produce an uproarious assembly after failing to present one their sophomore year.

The theme of this year's Junior Assembly was "Surfin' Safari," with the stage set as a beach scene. The informal master of ceremonies was Leslie "Peanuts" Holman, who dispersed humor throughout the show.

Entertain Students and Faculty at Junior Assembly

A humorous satire on Mr. Saho and Mr. Scovil opened the assembly. A chorus line of girls, dressed in black tights, did an excellent dancing interpretation of "Steam Heat." Another popular act was "How You Gonna Keep 'Em Offa the Beach," a singing and dancing routine. A particular favorite with the students were the impersonations done by a group of junior girls. The assembly concluded with participants on the stage twisting to the theme song, "Surfin' Safari."

for 'Carousel'

Nearly two hundred students and faculty members worked for weeks to present an outstanding production of one of America's great musicals, "Carousel." Which followed in the fine tradition of other GFHS musicals.

Earl Goodman as Billy Bigelow and Mary Vereen as Julie Jordan played the lead roles. Bigelow was a braggart barker for a carousel, and Julie a gentle, trusting factory girl who married him against all sound judgment, except that of her heart.

Sylvia Whyte did a fine job in the role of Carrie, Julie's silly but practical friend, who married the dependable Mr. Snow, played by John McPherson.

Judy Stowe appeared as Mrs. Mullen, the jealous owner of the carousel and Billy's employer. Tami Christ-Janer was seen as the owner of the resort where the "real nice clam-bake" was held.

Jerry Stockstad was the sly crook who persuaded Billy to attempt a robbery.

Pat Gittens played Bigelow's lonely, socially-rejected daughter, who Billy returned to earth to see 15 years after his death.

Stimulate Enthusiastic Student Support of Athletic and Cultural Programs

Girls trying out for JV cheerleaders give all they've got to cheering.

One of our favorite pep assembly programs was done by the Delphian Choir, singing "You've Got To Be a Football Hero."

Traditional Fun Day Provides Relaxation in Early Spring

The Roundup Parade 1962 was one of the best in years. The floats were developed around a theme of "States." Sweepstakes was won by Mr. Williamson's class float, built in the form of a race track representing the Kentucky Derby.

That evening a barbecue supper was held in the gymnasium, followed by the final event of the day, the Roundup Day dance where Gerri Ogle and Dick Shockley were named King and Queen.

Active Delphian Choir Presents Christmas Entertainment 'Amahl and the Night Visitors'

Amahl and the Wise Men look to Tami Christ-Janer during a tragic and touching scene of the play.

Tami Christ-Janer, Mary Vereen, Sylvia White, and John McPherson sang important roles in the Christmas operetta.

This Christmas Season the Great Falls High School music department presented a fine production of the beautiful operetta, "Amahl and the Night Visitors." It is a story of a little crippled shephard boy and his mother, who are visited by the Wise Men from the East in search of the Christ child. Amahl wants to give a gift too. All he has is his crutch, but this he gladly gives. Because of this act the little boy is cured and he goes away with the Three Kings to take his gift to the child.

Leads in the operetta were sung by Tami Christ-Janer as mother, Earl Goodman, Jerry Stockstad, and John McPherson as the Three Kings, Phil Kiser as the page, and Richard Philstin as Amahl.

Junior Varsity Cheerleaders Gain Experience Which May be Used in Future Varsity Spots

After football season this year it was again necessary to elect junior varsity cheerleaders to cheer at the large number of junior varsity games played during basketball season. Attention paid to the JV teams is increasing at GFHS with the aid of the junior varsity cheerleaders.

JV cheerleaders discover that the variety of cheer routines requires hard work and much practice.

Only sophomore and junior girls are eligible for junior varsity cheerleading. As with the varsity squad, they must be elected by the student body after passing the primary election before the Student Council.

This year's JV cheerleaders supported their teams with intense enthusiasm. They attended as many out-of-town games as they could and encouraged others to do so.

This year's varsity cheerleaders gave a large portion of their time and efforts to boost school spirit. Their posters advertised every game and wrestling match, encouraging a large attendance. They honored our teams in every way possible.

But especially important, they devoted many long and strenuous hours to the practicing of their intricate cheer routines. They were rewarded for their hard work when they were awarded the second place cheering trophy at the Class AA Tournament in Butte.

Desirous of the superior rating of All State yearbook, the 1963 Roundup editors and staff began their work in October, 1962. Approximately six months of hard work faced these rugged individuals.

As the first deadlines approached, it was discovered that daily work would be essential for the proper completion of the book. Because of the split shift system, it was often necessary to work both afternoons and evenings. Many weekends were also devoted to Roundup work.

This work included such tasks as taking pictures, pasting lay-outs, writing copy, and indexing pages. Before this work could be done, however, a large amount of organizational and instructional work was necessary. Soon the struggle to meet deadlines became all-important in room 110. However, the many long hours spent by staff members working on the book were broken by occasional snacks and numerous jokes.

Due to the absence of Mr. William Spahr, Roundup advisor, who was on a leave of absence for service with the state legislature, Mr. John Murray, assistant advisor, supervised production during January and February. During his absence, Mr. Spahr communicated with the staff by phone, and during the two months made numerous trips between Helena and Great Falls to supervise production during weekends.

Mr. Murray, and Paula Latham, editor-in-chief, assumed a multitude of duties, including headline writing, picture taking, and general management of the many divisions and their editors and staffs.

We of the staff would like to take this opportunity to thank the members of the administration, faculty and student body who cooperated so well with us in the assembly of this book. The seemingly endless problems which occurred in year-book organization were tremendously overbalanced by the enjoyment and pride experienced while doing the job well.

Pep Clubbers, proud of their rank of mighty "Senior," attach the sign which labels their bus.

Over 500 Avid Fans Make Missoula Trip

Six bus loads of girls representing the Pep Club made their way to Missoula on February 23. As usual, the buses were segregated by classes. Before reaching the city limits, the senior bus stopped so that the girls could put up signs announcing their arrival.

During the afternoon the girls had two free hours in which to see the town, do some shopping, visit the university, or find a place to eat.

The girls admire their handiwork and agree that "That is just the perfect touch."

Before entering Great Falls, a very exhausted Lee Bain catches up on lost sleep due to the Pep Club trips to Helena, and Missoula.

February 22 a smaller delegation of girls from the Pep Club—about 40 avid fans—also rode a bus to Helena for a basketball game. Participation in this activity was the prize in a high sales contest in the annual Pep Club Christmas tree drive.

Pep Club Charters Buses for Entire Membership

In addition to the six buses loaded with enthusiastic basketball fans from the Pep Club, a Student Council sponsored bus and several private cars filled with GFHS students made the trip to Missoula.

The game was played in the gymnasium of the Montana State University field house. The playing floor was new to both teams.

The huge Great Falls delegation—especially the Pep Club—gave all their energies to support our basketball team.

Linda Borgeson and Connie Soter display the avid class spirit which is typical of the Class of '63.

Hair clips and rollers dominate Pep Clubbers coiffures en route to Missoula.

Girls are completely tired out after a long, active day and an evening of wild excitement and yelling.

During the bus trips to and from Missoula, the girls participated in the singing and "goofing off" which is characteristic of all student bus trips. Also characteristic of Pep Club trips, the last 50 miles of both trips was devoted to the ratting and combing of hair and general primping.

MUSO

*The cellos, setting forth apart,
Grumbled and sang, and so the day,
From the low beaches of my heart,
Turned in tranquility away.*

*And over weariness and doubt
Rose up the horns like bellied sails,
Like canvas of the soul flung out
To rising and orchestral gales;*

*Passed on and left irresolute
The ebony, the silver throat
Low over clarinet and flute
Hung heaven upon a single note.*

Bisonettes Display Good Showmanship

Bisonettes must be members of the band and must have had past dance experience. Girls are chosen for membership by girls who are already members. Mr. Roger Heath, band director, assists in the auditions and advises the group on prospective new members.

Since the Bisonettes specialize in half-time shows for basketball and football games, they are annually invited to perform at the Class AA Basketball Tournaments. They also perform with the Bluenotes at the annual Football Banquet.

The first half-time show presented by the band this year was entitled "Thanks for the Memories." This was a brief resumé of the band trip to the World's Fair. By dancing with sparklers, the Bisonettes represented the torch on the Space Needle. Again using the sparkler technique, the Bisonettes portrayed the flame from a rocket ship in "The Satellite Story."

In Kalispell the band presented "An Evening of Television," which included "77 Sunset Strip," "Huckleberry Hound," "Alfred Hitchcock," and "The Untouchables." In the latter, the Bisonettes performed a colorful Charleston in Joe's Place.

The Bisonettes were flag bearers in "Salute to Freedom," a show which featured the Delphian Choir.

Dave Traber — Drum Major

The Pep Band, under the direction of Mr. Roger Heath — band leader and Dave Traber — student director, adds musical spirit to all basketball games. The band supplies the musical background and effects necessary for school songs and cheers.

Other songs, such as "Hey, Look Me Over!" are provided by the band as light entertainment between game quarters.

Dave Traber, head drum major, and Jerry Buffington, assistant, work with the combined marching bands during half-time shows and in parades. They give the signals at which the bands move into certain drills and formations.

Mr. Glenn Welshon
Orchestra Director

The orchestra program of Great Falls High School aspires that each member of the school orchestra will develop an attitude of love and enthusiasm for fine music, good companionship, and cooperation in accomplishing something worthwhile. The success of this music program was displayed in the winter concert of the GFHS Symphony Orchestra and Pit Orchestra, "The Art of Music."

"The Art of Music" program was highlighted by the performances of Professor Eugene Andrie, the Mary Ellen Academy of Ballet, and the GFHS Flute Trio.

The orchestra, directed by Mr. Glen R. Welshon, strives for the highest possible level of performance. The group performs a variety of the best musical arrangements, including classical, contemporary, and Broadway. Each year the orchestra appears in the school musical, providing all musical background. It also performs at numerous civic organizations during the year, plus the Baccalaureate and graduation.

An important element in the musical philosophy of school orchestras is the encouragement of individual initiative and competence in the student. Students are challenged to use their minds and talents to the highest degree through the performance of music of the highest caliber and heritage significance. High school students can and should be exposed to music which demands the best in them and which creates an interest in serious musical literature which will manifest itself throughout life.

At a time when there is a return to intellectualism in the schools, music, particularly orchestra music, can contribute to the pleasure, mental stimulation, and inspiration of the fine academic student. In doing so, it provides an outstanding and unique opportunity for the encouragement of the best in thinking and accomplishment among young people. Music students will be better scholastic students because of the mental discipline and wholesome emotional inspiration that serious music brings.

for Advanced Vocal Training

The Great Falls High School choruses and Glee Clubs are under the direction of William G. Williamson. Their activities include Christmas and spring concerts, the District Musical Festival, and often times, special programs for certain organizations in the city. This year, Chorus II sang in "Amahl and the Night Visitors", and Chorus I sang for the Largent P.T.A. as well as the Masonic Americanism Program. All chorus members are eligible to try out for parts in the annual musical which, this year, was "Carousel". Chorus members usually advance from one chorus to another as they go from sophomores to seniors. Members of Chorus I usually go on to be in Delphian Choir which is a select group of the top singers in the school that sings for many city organizations.

Bison Band Honored at World's Fair

This summer the Bison Band traveled to the Seattle World's Fair, performing for two consecutive days on the "Plaza of the States". The fun-filled trip included sight-seeing at the fair itself as well as a good time both coming and going. The band was lucky and honored in that it was the only band to be asked back for a second performance.

Well, we finally made it!

Now let's show off a little bit.

Look at the size of those crowds!

Are they here to watch us?

And the band played on.

Seattle Trip Long but Enjoyable

The trip to Seattle began with a stop-over at the McDonald cabin in Glacier Park for lunch and a quick swim. The first night was spent in Spokane and it was on to the Fair the next morning. The bus ride was filled with the usual wild shenanigans. Souvenirs from the Fair crowded the bus on the way back.

C'mon, let's get this show on the road!

How did we all fit in here the first time?

Golly! Did you see all of the big buildings?

I guess that will teach you to get smart with a Bison band member!!

Home?? Where's that?

Young Musicians Enjoy Traveling

Grandma, what hairy legs you have!

All right already! I give up!

Does she, or doesn't she?

And now for a word from our sponsor.

Problems, huddy

Let's get this thing loaded.

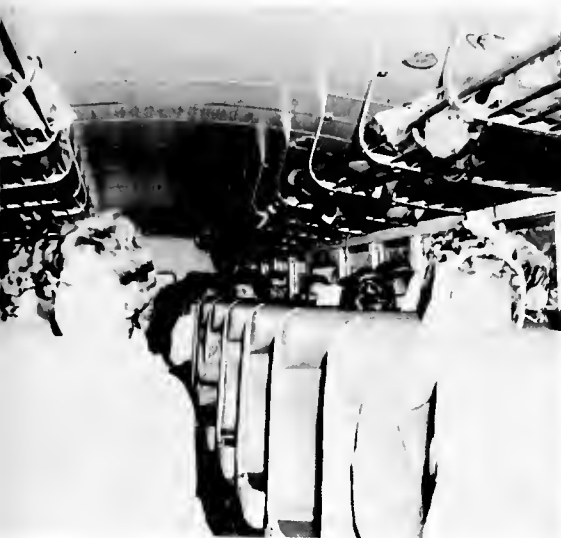

Roll out the barrel.

We're raring to go now.

For Out-of-Town Performances

It's early in the morning.

The later it gets—

The louder it gets

Gee, this is fun!

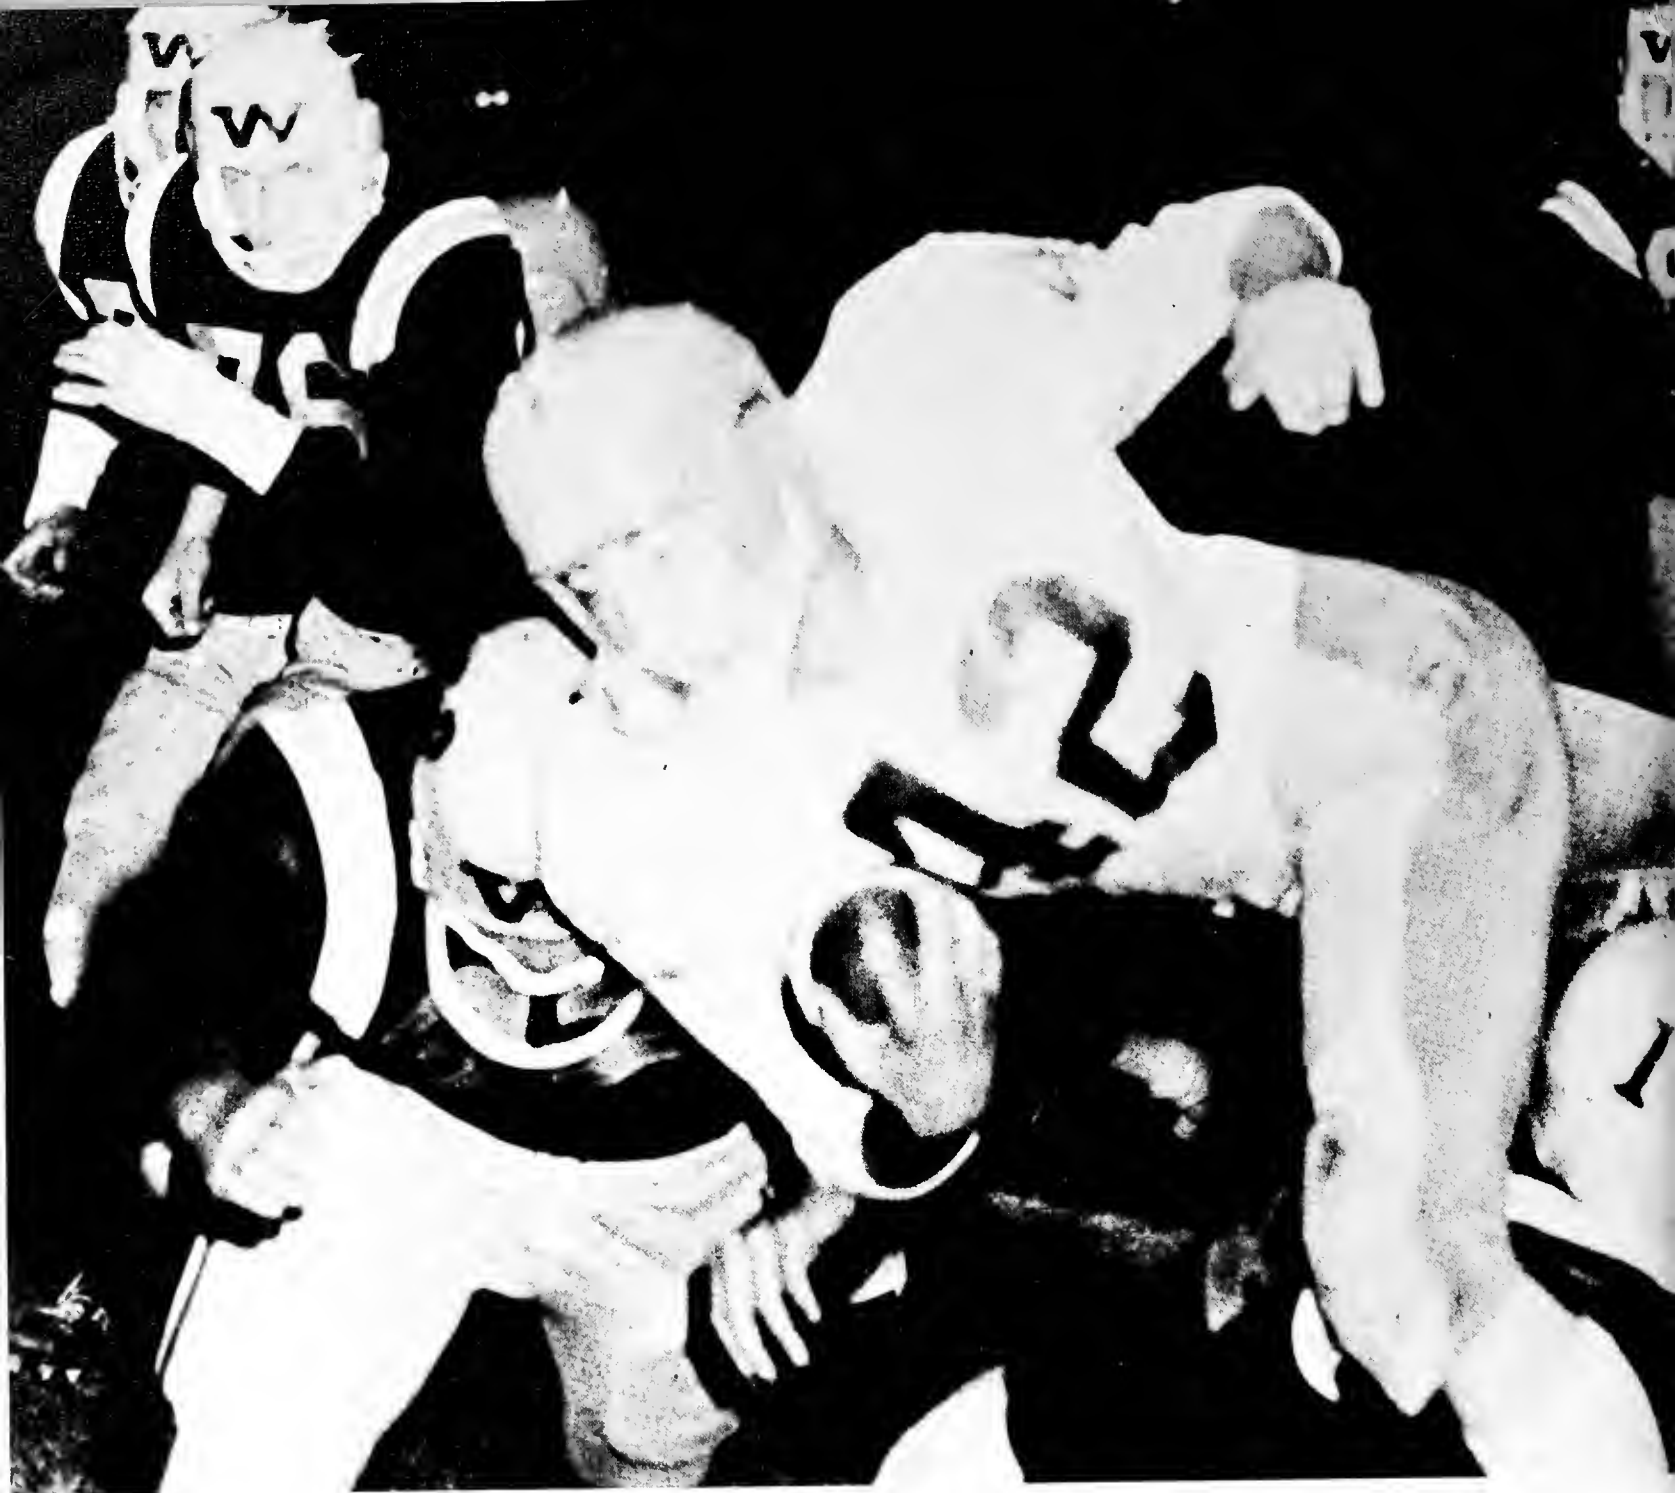

Wanna' run it?

Goodbye, Tami. Good luck . . .

. . . from all of us.

SPORT

They may sound your praise and call you great,
 They may single you out for fame,
 But you must work with your running mate
 Or you'll never win the game;
 Oh, never the work of life is done
 By the man with a selfish dream,
 For the battle is lost or the battle is won
 By the spirit of the team.

You may think it fine to be praised for skill,
 But a greater thing to do
 Is to set your mind and set your will
 On the goal that's just in view;
 It's helping your fellowman to score
 When his chances hopeless seem,
 It's forgetting self till the game is o'er
 And fighting for the team.

This year the JV coaches anticipated a large number of boys turning out to participate in the JV program and they felt that two teams would be necessary to accommodate the large turnout. Mr. Anderson and Mr. Davis coached the Buffs, while Mr. Middleton and Mr. Hall would take care of the Cougars. The two teams practiced with the varsity at first but later, as the squads were picked, they practiced amongst themselves.

A Bison and his opponent try to get a hold for that all-important take-down. Often times opponents may grapple for the better part of a match before one is successful in getting the advantage and eventually the two points awarded for a take-down.

A Bison wrestler gets set to pick up five points with a pin against a tough opponent. All he needs is a little added effort and the slap of the ref's hand against the mat and it's all over but the shouting.

Bison Post 13-2 Record During Season, Losing Only to Missoula

The referee raises Bill Gilboe's arm in the traditional symbol of victory. This was quite common at the meets this year as the Bison posted the second best record in the state with their eleven and two record.

It's the end of the match, a welcome relief after six minutes of hard wrestling. The team starts to come out to congratulate the wrestler on a job well done, win, lose or draw.

Popularity of Wrestling Has Increased Rapidly Since Its Introduction Here in 1956

A Bison wrestler gets in a good position. In wrestling the most important thing is the position that gives you the advantage. Even when a wrestler gets the position he wants, he must be alert and quick to maintain it.

Dave Lafferty and his opponent strain all of their muscles in a valiant effort to get each other off balance and on to the mat for the take down. Many times neither wrestler is successful in getting the advantage and they will have to try in a referee's position.

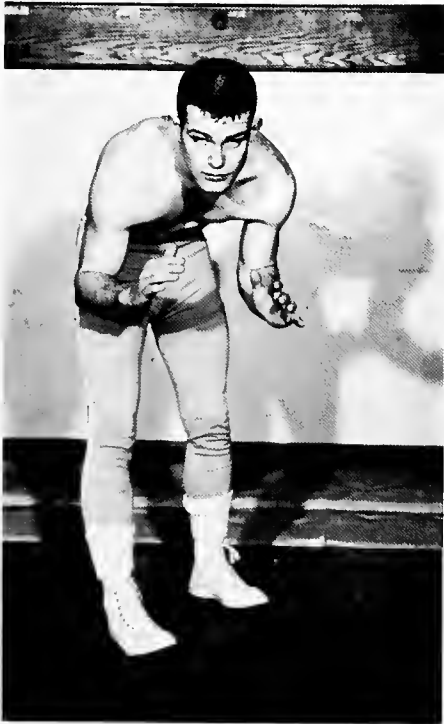

Fast Action and Variety of Weight Classification Attract 55 Enthusiastic Athletes

Dave Leland tries to twist away from a tough Butte opponent who seems to have a momentary advantage. All it takes is a slight mistake on the part of one of the opponents and the other gets the position he wants. It is this fast action that makes wrestling a well-liked sport at GFHS.

Jim Neumeyer makes a good try to get away from a tough Butte opponent. Often times even the best wrestler will get into predicaments in which he is at a definite disadvantage and he will have to use every trick that he knows to get away and even then it may not work.

Rick Haltunen finds himself in one of the best possible positions. He has complete mastery of the entire situation. He can do what he pleases and the man on the bottom is almost helpless when it comes to stopping him.

One point! Not much, but every little point helps when going against a rough team like Missoula. A Bison wrestler picks this point up for an apparent reversal. The Spartans handed the Bison matmen their first defeat of the season at this meet.

Keen Competition, Dramatic and Sudden Decisions, Make Sport Popular at GFHS

Bill Gilboe and his opponent get set in a referee's position. This is one of the basic positions, and is used to start two of the three rounds. It is also used when a man goes out of bounds. Each opponent gets to start in this position at least once.

Kirk Nordell is about ready to slam his Butte opponent against the mat for a two-point take-down. This will put him in a position for a near pin. Situations such as this often prove disastrous for the man who is being dropped.

Bison wrestler, Fred Schafer, seems to have his tough Missoula opponent under control after a few seconds of hard wrestling. With this position Fred can probably get the very valuable pin. Fred received a trophy at the state tournament this year when he got the fastest pin, downing his Billings opponent in 26 seconds.

A Bison wrestler does his best to get out from under a dogged Missoula opponent, who is trying just as hard to keep him where he is. The Spartan team gave the Bison trouble this year, as they were the only team to beat the Bison in a dual meet. The tough Spartans repeated as state champions again this year, while the Bison took second for the fifth time in five years.

Head Coach

Pictured above is the Bison Ski Club, varsity team and reserves. The entire club spent the greater part of their weekends at King's Hill practicing for meets. They also spent several weekends competing in meets at various ski areas around the state. This year the team competed in meets at Kalispell, Bozeman, and Butte, just to name a few. Roar Loken was the first Bison skier named to represent the Rocky Mountain Ski Association in the Junior National Championship at Jackson Hole, Wyoming, March 10 through the 16th. Roar competed in the cross-country and jumping events. Several other members of the team stood out this year also. To prove this they brought home several trophies to grace the trophy cases in the hall.

The team, under the leadership of coach Ron Hall, met daily at the Meadowlark Country Club course to practice and get in shape for the meets against other schools from throughout the entire state. The highlight of the golf season was the Inter-scholastic meet held annually on the campus course at Montana State University.

Varsity Coaches
GALEN 'MO' MOYER, hurdlers and sprinters,
RAY DODDS, distance runners and jumpers,
ARNIE SCOTT, head Coach and weight men,
FLOYD SCHLAMEUS, trainer

Track season opened this year with about 75 eager competitors reporting for the initial workout. Throughout the week, the cindermen spent a large portion of their time working out against each other for the right to compete as members of the varsity. Also much time was spent under the watchful eyes of the coaches who gave the team valuable tips on how to improve their heights times and distances.

This year Mr. Arni Scott, head coach, was faced with a massive rebuilding problem. Only four lettermen from last years squad were able to come out. These men, Fred Schafer, Bill Farihurst, Larry Kelly, and Mike O'Brian, were heavily relied upon to provide much of the scoring punch so badly needed in the various meets around the state this season.

Keen Competition Throughout State Causes Bison to Work for Team Points

The sophomores also helped to give Coach Scott a few bright moments as they added points to the score. The sophomores will prove to be a valuable asset in the coming seasons.

Mr. Scott was ably assisted by Mr. Ray Dodds, who worked with the distance runners and the jumpers, Mr. Galen 'Mo' Moyer, who worked with the sprinters and hurdlers. Mr. Scott took care of the weight men.

The Bison competed in about seven or eight meets this season. They opened their season with an indoor meet at Bozeman and then went on to compete in several other minor meets around the state. The season was climaxed by the divisional meet where the cindermen competed to see who would be allowed to compete in the biggest track meet of the year, the annual Interscholastic Track Meet held on the campus of Montana State University.

This is typical of the daily practice that goes on throughout the week in Memorial Stadium. The team practices about two and a half to three hours daily.

Serious Practice and Competition Pay Off for Bison During Track Meets

Bison sprinters eagerly anticipate the starters signal in a practice race.

Varsity hurdlers take time to get themselves properly set in the blocks.

Uncertain Weather Causes Many Problems for 40 Eager Bison Tennis Contestants

Pictured above is the Great Falls High School Tennis club. This organization is open to any GFHS student who is interested in improving his tennis game. The club, sponsored by Mr. James Engle, holds most of their meetings at night, where they see movies and demonstrations on the various aspects of tennis. The club also sponsors many different activities throughout the spring. This year's big project was a basketball game between the faculty and the seniors. The proceeds of this game helped to send a team to Missoula to compete in the Interscholastics at the end of the school year. They also sponsored an intramural tennis tournament that was open to all GFHS tennis fans.

Reminiscent Seniors Look Back on Their

Couples anxiously await the arrival of the royalty procession as it advances toward the throne.

The 1963 seniors initiated a royalty program for their Senior Ball. Five candidates for queen and five candidates for king were nominated by the seniors. Final royalty were elected at the dance.

Queen Jan Hansen and King Tom Storm reigned over the court with Princesses Penny Bowlin, Bonnie Henderson, Paula Latham, and Molly McCollum and Princes Darrell Furan, Carl Lawson, Mike Pichette, and Fred Schafer.

'Moments to Remember' at Great Falls High

Between dances couples visit with friends or admire the decorations. The center of interest is the huge replica of an hour glass, which personifies the fact that the time in high school is running out for the seniors.

Members of the Class of 1963 chose as the theme for their Senior Ball "Moments to Remember." To carry out their theme, the decorations exemplified the numerous happy and memorable events that the seniors experienced in their three years at Great Falls High School. Athletic victories and class assemblies were among the happy times that the seniors recalled through the dance decorations.

Time is divided between dancing to Harold Nichols' music and drinking delicious punch.

Jamie McCauley, representative to SEVENTEEN Magazine for the board this year, discusses a coordinate group with Sandi Smith and Jeri Brawn in The Petite Shoppe's Sweaterland.

TEEN TIME BUYERS CLUB

Have you ever wondered how a fashion buyer selects garments to stock a store? An opportunity for all high school students to find out was offered this year with the formation of the Teen Time Buyer's Club.

Purpose of the club is twofold. On the one hand, it acquaints the members with the operations of stores and of the garment industry. In return, the sponsor (The Petite Shoppe, of course!) gains information from board members about trends in school fashions. This keeps The Petite Shoppe in close touch with teen age ideas and guides The Petite Shoppe in buying for this group.

Meetings are held monthly, each session being devoted to a different phase of the fashion buying operation. Typical subjects were "Fabrics and their Uses", "Advertising", "Lateral versus Vertical Buying Patterns", "Buying Coordinates in a Balanced Pattern" and the like.

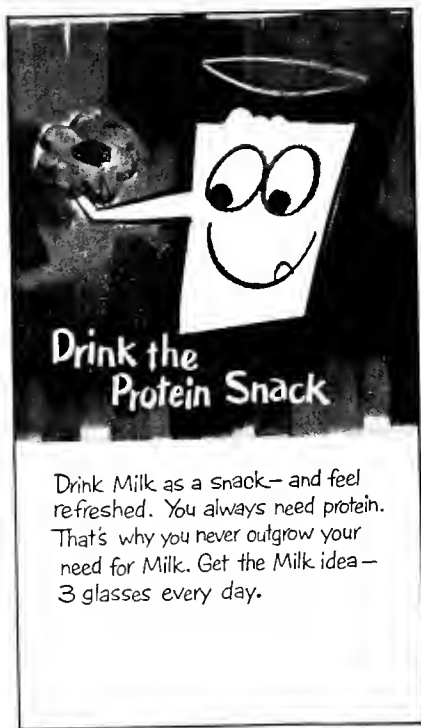

In addition, the club is affiliated with SEVENTEEN Magazine as a "Fashion Board" for SEVENTEEN.

In cooperation with the magazine, one member is elected each year to serve as SEVENTEEN correspondent. In this office, she receives four definite assignments for projects each year to assist with editorial information. She also receives a monthly newsletter from SEVENTEEN and several other queries to be checked with the board. A typical query this year: SEVENTEEN planned to feature a young popular band; could we suggest one? We suggested the Blue Notes.

Jamie McCauley, a transfer senior at Great Falls High School was elected to serve as SEVENTEEN correspondent this year.

The club is open, no strings attached, to any high school student who wishes to attend meetings. Students from Great Falls High School who attended sessions included Pamela Callaway, Sue McNeese, Marilyn Golder, Sandi Tague, Janet Dains, Carol Boetcher, Marilyn Sechena, Barbara Barer and Shirley Thurber as well as those pictured above.

INTELLIGENT LEADERSHIP

In its search for intelligent leadership, industry seeks a person who has a sharp grasp of fundamentals, who can observe with precision and discrimination, who can analyze clearly, reason well, and articulate his findings and conclusions.

That would seem to be the ideal person.

The greatest single contribution to such an ideal is education, and education has become more and more the concern of industry.

For education means leadership.

The Anaconda Company participates actively in a program of aid to education through scholarships and awards.

Hee-o-o-o Mr. Thorsen!

How are ya? Holly, it's just been great havin' ya in band!
I'll never forget what a
"cheater" you are!

I'm not gonna be in band
next yr., I doubt, but I sure hope I see you around. Come up to the tennis cts. once in a while, ok?

Loads & loads of luck in the future from someone who thinks you're tops!!!

Sue Christensen

62-63

"Dip" Thorsen
Trash
all trash
Bring your cards
over and we'll have a game.

Dennis
McLafferty

Ron:

Lots of luck
~~from~~ to a real nut from 8th on. The best of everything.

Judy.
Blinke

Ron,

To a sweet guy
who gets away with murder in World History. Have fun
this summer & don't booze it up too much.
Marilyn Haggerty

Ron, you're a good guy & lots of fun
in band - Wish I could have gotten to know
ya better! (Ya nut!)
Linda Gilboe
"65"

Ron,
We've had alot
of fun in Band
and I'm sure we'll always remember Mr. Jones.
Be good and don't kid Joel!
Billie Heston

Ron,
Be good in your
future school years.
Future school knowing
It was "A.A. History"
you in "A.A. History"
"good luck"
Judy Ackerman

Ron
To a really neat guy whose been loads of fun in geometry with old "hudd" Have fun in the future years and keep the girls happy huh!!!
Diane Peterson

Ron,
I have fun and watch your step with Donna (you know what I mean) Lots of luck always!
Mike Scofield

Ron,
To a real nut and I mean a real nut. We sure did have some fun. Good luck next year.

Rich

Ron,
It's been fun
having you in world history
Have fun with Donna.
Dennis Dronen

Five Ron
you so long don't getting used to you or else immune.
Maybe all so you next year
I know my luck I might
Good luck (the only thing
C. Dana Duncan serious to you)

Romney?????
Are you a boy or girl? I really want to know!!! I've had a lot of fun with you this year but there has been some queer moments. (I (most of the time). You're being queer again with my Roundup? I hope you can change you're mind about me because I don't love you anymore. I can only take that stuff for so long.

~~Love~~

Wendy

Don't you great. I'm you that class - worker to a good luck
Sincerely,
Suzie
Summer

Don't you
great. I'm you that class - worker
to a good luck
Sincerely,

Summer

Ron had lots of fun & hills with you and I hope we stay long best of friend for a long time.
Love
with Donna

Eddie Mae

Ron!
We really enjoyed knowing you this year. Best of luck in the future
Bruce

Ron -
Hi! If you think your Soph. year was fun, wait 'til
next year!
See ya then -

Bye -
Patsy
Miller
'64

Ron,
You're a real "nut".
Good for you for giving
Mr. Wolff such a hard time. Wish loads of luck in the future and see you next year
Marsha

Save Lord Emma

Roscoe -
Roses are up and violets are - on to tell with it, you're a good kid - Fred -

Ron
You are a great guy that been a lot of fun. Best of luck always - Don't get scared to much Randy

Ron
Remember all of the fun we've had keeping Hustler on the bus and having the dumb breads.
Nan
63

Ron,
To a good card
player and a real lover,
Have fun at the coast,
Tom
